We all know by now that Presidents and Prime Ministers are merely front men for the global death cult, placed there to dazzle and misdirect the public.

Controlled by a shadowy factions of “elites”. This leads to the question, who are they?

The purpose of todays article is not to pin point exactly who they are in terms of a specific bloodline or family, but to demonstrate that behind the worlds leading names in politics, military, science and even technology there are ancient bloodlines often going under the title of "House" such as the House of Farnese or the House or the House of Bourbon/Bourbon Two Sicilies.

These bloodlines have intermarried, fused and mixed together, so there is no specific name to hang your hat on. But the titles most researchers use are The Black Nobility and The Papal Nobility.

Another aim of this article is to show you that the Roman Empire never died, it simply moved back into the shadows whilst leaving its bloodlines in positions of power in all corners of the globe. Especially in Rome, The City of London and Washington DC. This Empire was in fact a continuation of the Cult of Babylon.

Keeping It In House

Most people will have heard of The House of Windsor and The House of Saxe-Coburg - Gotha, yet there are a number of much more powerful "Houses" and bloodlines that truly rule the world today, at least they do in the physical plane.

The Satanic Rituals they perform to the likes of Molach or Baal suggest that even these bloodlines are serving something else outside of this reality.

These families are most commonly known as The Black Nobility and The Papal Nobility and they have consistently intermarried over thousands of years. These included numerous Popes and even the original funders of the Jesuits who are believed have been the Farnese family.

So why is this information important today?

If you look at King Charles you will find that he is the current Patron and head of the Pilgrim Society. The Pilgrim Society was founded with the alleged aim of keeping relations between the US and Great Britain on solid ground. But if you dig a little deeper you will find that there is a reason why both the US and Great Britain are the only nations to openly support Israels genocide in Gaza.

This relates back to the tales of King Arthur, The Round Table (WEF) and the Knights Templar, which then connects into the push for a 3rd Solomons Temple in Jerusalem, British Israelism, The Kabbalah and the Biblical End Times narrative.

It is a cult after all!

In fact there is still a Templar Church in the centre of the City of London called The Temple. Robin Griffith-Jones is the Reverend and Valiant Master of the Temple at the Temple Church, and a Senior Lecturer in Theology at King's College London. These are the Knights Templar, which connects in with the upper levels of Freemasonry, all of which speak of an agenda involving a 3rd Solomons Temple.

British Israelism is the belief that modern day some Brit's can trace their ancestry back to the Ten Lost Tribes of Israel, King David and thus Solomon. This appears to be the belief held by the current British Royals and perhaps many of the Black Nobility bloodlines as well.

THE PILGRIMS AND THE ROUND TABLE WILLIAM RAMSEY

It is my belief that the United States never truly gained independence in 1776, which was also the year that Adam Weishaupt (Farnese funded), Mayer Amschel Rothschild and the Sabbatean Frankist Jacob Frank came together to found the agenda for what many call the Illuminati. I believe that these Black Nobility bloodlines simply decided it was best to fade into the shadows and let their Freemasonic, Sabbatean and Jesuit agents take the stage to give the US citizen the illusion of choice.

Kings, Queens, Prime Ministers and Presidents of the modern world do not so much bend the knee to Israel but more to the Satanic Death Cult that sits behind Zionism and modern day Israel. This is why we see Joe Biden, Kier Starmer, Rishi Sunak, RFK jnr and Donald Trump all bend the knee to Israel. We even have the likes of Elon Musk applauding the genocidal ramblings of Rothschild stooge Benjamin Netanyahu on Capitol (Capitoline) Hill recently.

Donald Trump is very well acquainted with these Black Nobility bloodlines, such as Prince Carlo of Bourbon-Two Sicilies. In 2018 the Prince, with his wife Princess Camilla Crociani and their two daughters visited Trump as his Mar-a-Lago residence.

Princess Camilla posted the three photos on her Instagram page, writing that she and Prince Charles had 'spent a wonderful evening' with Trump 'in the enchanting Mar-a-Lago'

The House of Bourdon-Two Sicillies is run by Prince Carlo (also goes by the name Prince Charles). As Grand Master of the Sacred Military Constantinian Order of Saint George he promotes and coordinates the humanitarian and cultural activities of this ancient knightly order. It appears the Spanish branch of the Bourbon-Two Sicilies claim another bloodline member is the actual head of the House of Bourbon-Two Sicilies.

Some researchers such as Amy Hunter who writes under the pen name Amy Says WTF say that when we get to the Apex of this power structure we find the United Nations, the Jesuits and The Vatican. I highly recommend Amy's excellent book "Synarchy" for anyone interested in these subjects.

I was speaking with Amy whilst we were both researching these subject matters and she posted the below scene from Eyes Wide Shut, the famous Stanley Kubrick movie that gave a glimpse into this Satanic world of the "elite".

Many researchers believed this masked man to be a nod to Richard Nixon, who was indeed a regular attendee at Bohemian Grove (and close to Dick Carlson, Tucker Carlsons father) but I believe the mask has a much closer likeness to that of Prince Carlo than Nixon.

Perhaps I am wrong, but it is certainly worth bearing in mind.

The Farnese Family

Many people do not know that it was the Farnese family who funded the founder of the Jesuits, Ignatius of Loyola back in 1539, who was also the first Black Pope. Loyola was clearly well funded from the get go after embarking on his journey that culminated in the founding of the Jesuits, also known as The Society of Jesus.

It appears that Ignatius suffered a nervous breakdown from the surgery performed on his leg (bullet wound) without any pain relief. Whilst convalescing, all he had to read were books on the life of Jesus and his missionaries. It is believed that it was the martyrdom of Jesus that inspired Ignatius into a life of religion.

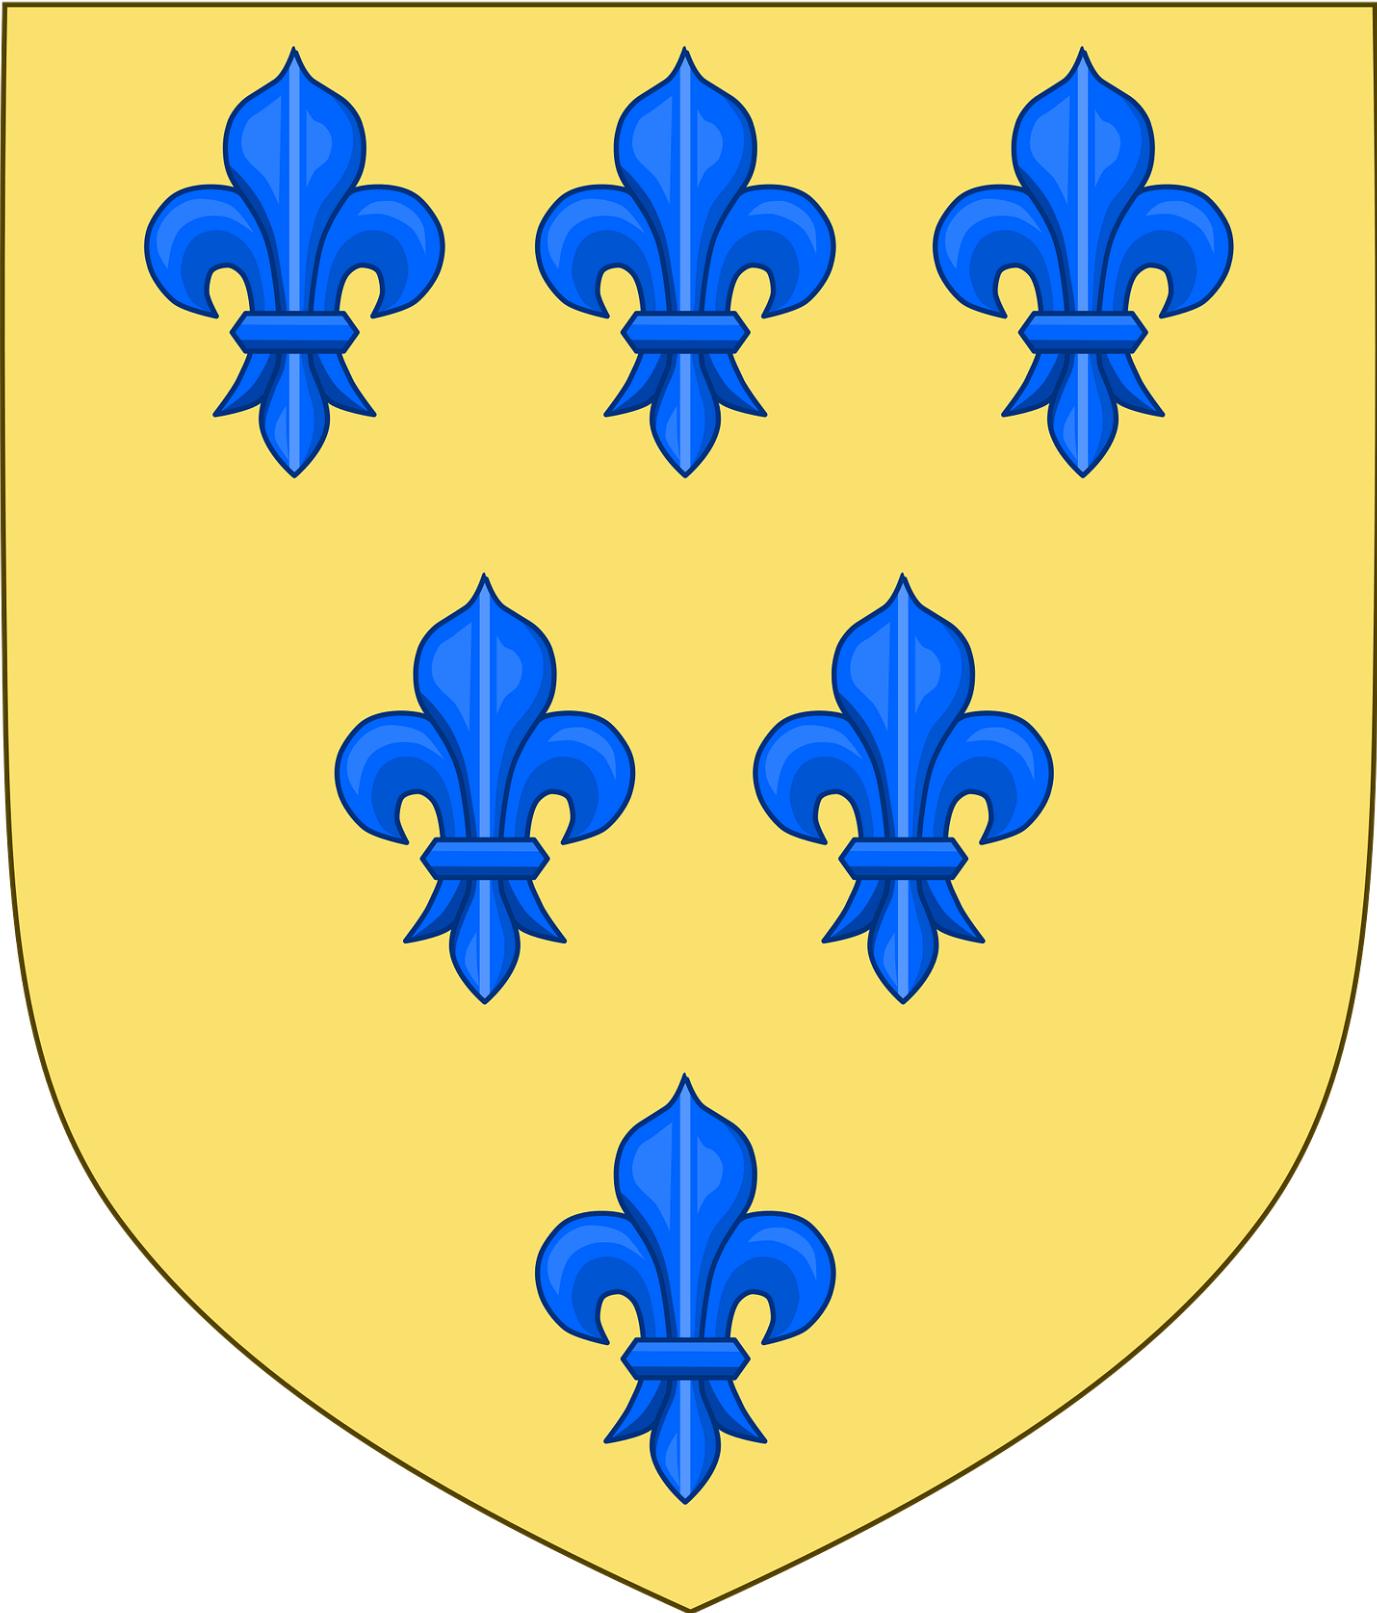

Whether this is actually true or not we don't know for sure, but what we do know is that he was heavily funded, and at least later on in his journey, that funding came from the Farnese family. The Jesuits were later established through the papal bull under Pope Paul III who's actual name was Alessandro Farnese.

Modern day connections to Trump and the Jesuits can be seen with his collaboration with the Jesuit educated Dr Anthony Fauci, as well as the Jesuit educated Melinda Gates. Both of whom had a huge role to play in the entire Covid 19 scam and his rolling out of Operation WarpSpeed.

What is fascinating about Trump is that not only is he closely aligned with high level Jesuits, but Trump is also closely aligned with the Messianic Chabad Lubavitch Jewish Sect through his daughter and son in law Jared Kushner.

At the apex of this global death cults agenda there are no divisions.

Trump appears to live in the pocket and the shadow of nobility, watched over by their secret societies.

Arms of the House of Farnese

The Farnese family can trace their lineage back to at least AD 984 but it wasn't until the 15th Century that the Farnese family really began to gain power. It was Ranuccio Farnese the Elder who is credited the rise of the Farnese family and their vast fortune. In 1419 Ranuccio was appointed the Senator of Rome by Pope Martin V.

His daughter, Giulia, who was a mistress of Pope Alexander VI, further expanded the Roman fortunes of her family by persuading the Pope to bestow on her brother Alessandro the title of cardinal. And as covered earlier on in this article, it was Alessandro as Pope Paul III, who gave prominence and an almost un checked licence to do their will, to Ignatius Loyola and the Jesuits. The Jesuits are in fact the military and intelligence arm of the Vatican.

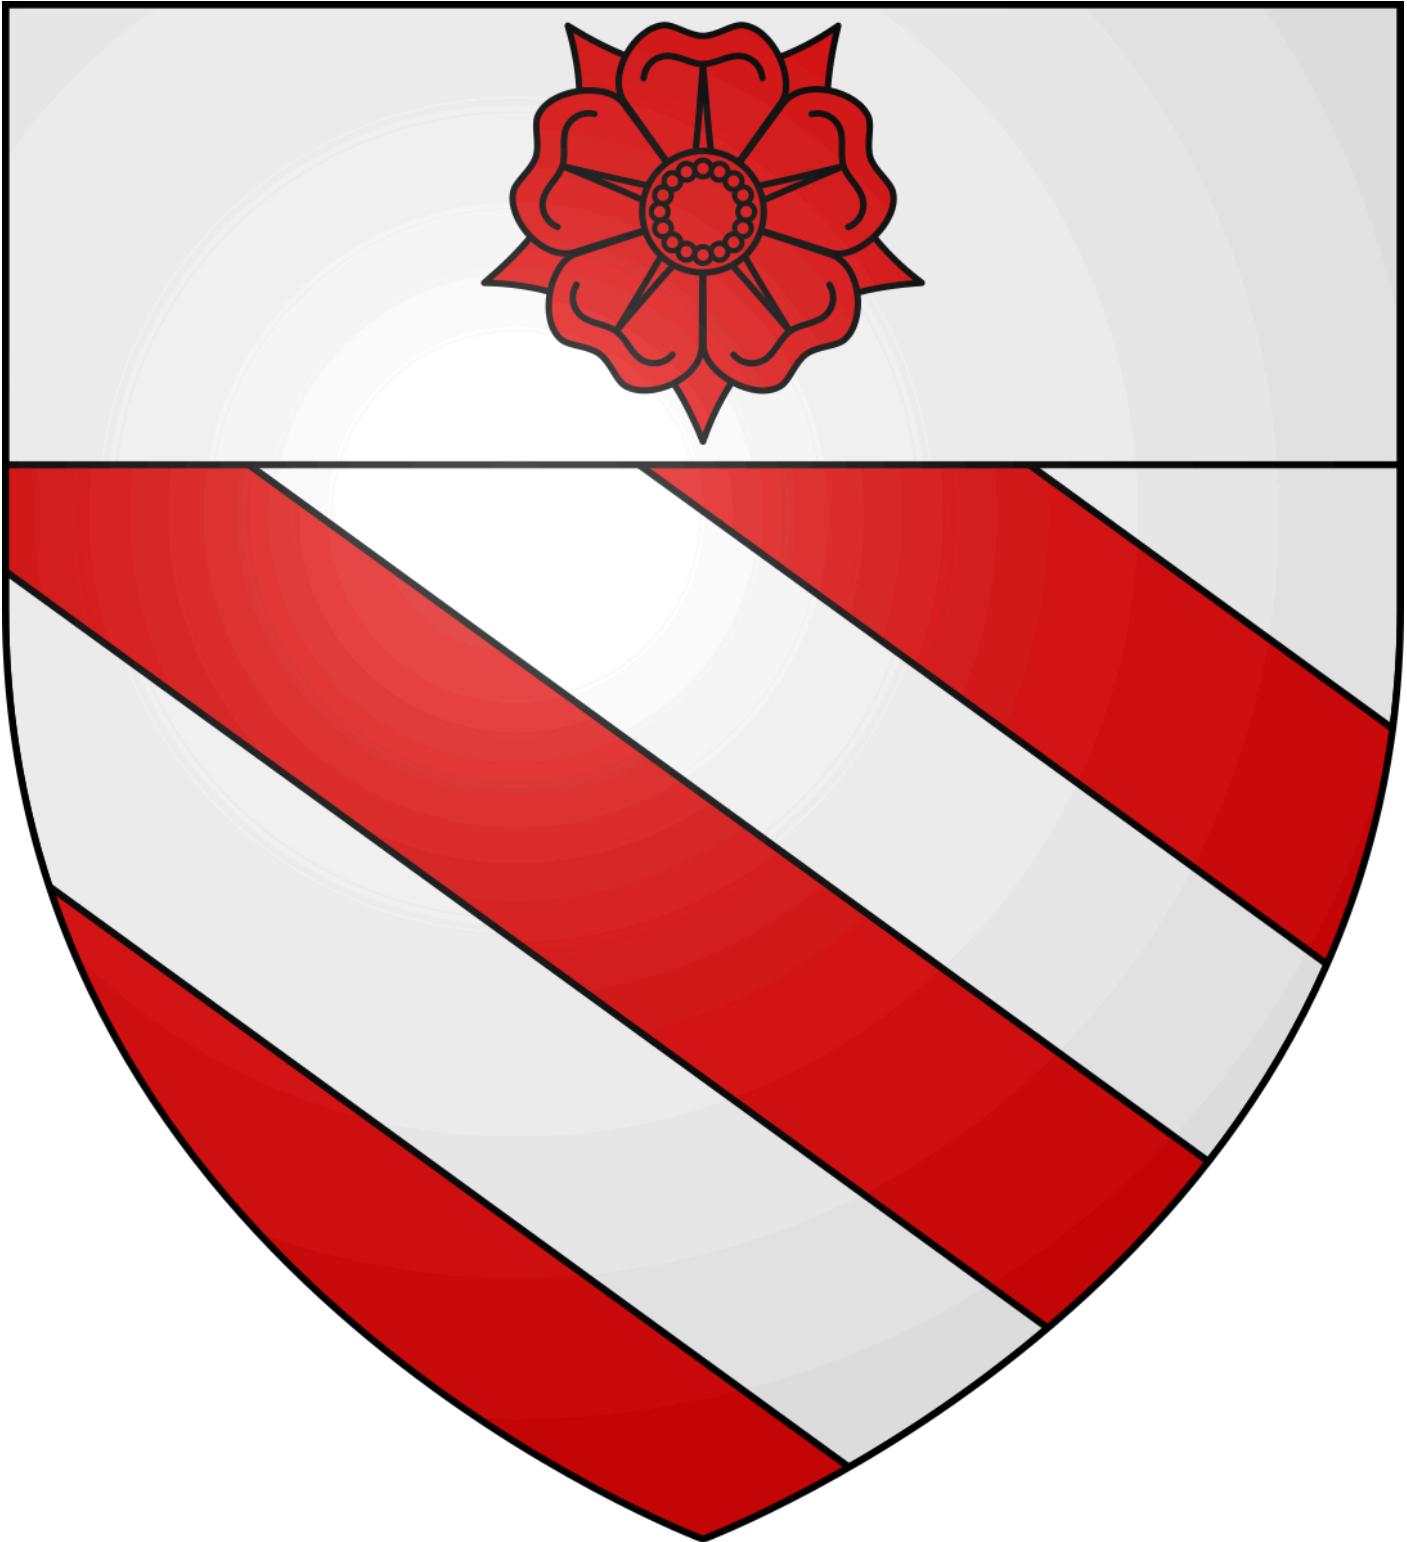

It appears the House of Farnese died out around the 1730's with their wealth and power transferring over to Don Carlos of Spain, later known as King Carlos III of Spain who established the House of Bourbon- Parma.

Here we see two branches of these Black Nobility Bloodlines coming together, as the House of Farnese is absorbed into one branch of the House of Bourbon. Remember Donald Trump is closely connected to the French Two Sicilies branch of the Bourbon Family.

It was the Rothschild who bailed out Donald Trump in the early 1990's via their head of bankruptcy Wilbur Ross. What is not very well known is that Carl Mayer von Rothschild, a Frankfurt born banker, was allowed to create his banking dynasty in the Kingdom of Two Sicilies and founded the Napoleon branch of the Rothschild banking dynasty. This just shows that someone like Donald Trump is far down the pecking order of power, and even the Rothschilds sit under these ancient bloodlines such as the Bourbon Two Sicilies. It was only after Queen Victoria's death that these nobility families began marrying into the likes of the Rothschild families to secure business and banking relations. In other words, they needed worker bees.

The House of Orsini

The Orsini family are an Italian born nobility family that was one of the most influential princely families in medieval Italy and Renaissance Rome. Members of the Orsini family include five popes.

Blason fam it Orsini

This bloodline is interesting not only because the current Grey Pope is claimed to be Pepi Orsini, but also because they claim that their lineage can be traced back to the Julio-Claudian dynasty of ancient Rome.

The Julio-Claudian dynasty includes the first five Emperors of Rome.

So here we have a direct connection between alleged ruling power of the Vatican today and the rulers of the Holy Roman Empire.

These first five Emperors of the Julio-Claudian dynasty were Augustus, Tiberius, Caligula, Claudius, and Nero. The first, Augustus ruled the empire from 27 BC and the last was Nero who took his own life in AD 68.

The name Julio-Claudian is a historiographical term, deriving from the two families composing the imperial dynasty: the Julii Caesares and Claudii Nerones.

Of course the most famous name in the the Claudian line is the Roman dictator Julius Caesar who adopted Augustus as his own.

This is all incredible to me, and shows that these bloodlines have held power for thousands of years, watching from the shadows even as they fostered both Christianity and Islam into being, as a triangulation power play which you see today as the West is being pitted against the Islamic East at the hands of the Sabbatean Zionist Israel.

Who do you think are pulling the strings?
